Our story

S.A Brain & Co. Ltd is Wales' leading drinks and hospitality business.

We've come a long way since Samuel Arthur Brain and his Uncle Joseph Benjamin Brain established Brains back in 1882. However, the same passion for our beer is still poured into every pint we produce. Our beers are enjoyed across the nation with favourites such as SA, our legendary premium bitter, Dark, our award winning dark mild, and The Rev. James Original which is still prepared today using the original recipe from 1885.

We also proudly manage a high quality estate of over 200 pubs and inns across Wales and the South West of England. Our pub estate has expanded rapidly over the last 20 years.

From mini breaks in West Wales, to a meal and drinks on a night out in our city centre pubs, or a fantastic lunch in a small country pub – we have it all.

The fun doesn't stop there, we are also the proud owners of the award winning Coffee#1, serving up the finest ethical, gourmet coffee around South Wales, the South West and the South Coast. We now have over 75 coffee shops and won the title of 'Best UK Coffee Chain' from 2012 – 2017.

To this day, we remain family owned and whilst a lot has changed since 1882, our values, dedication to brewing and passion for providing our guests with the best hospitality experience possible remain the same.

We look forward to welcoming you soon – iechyd da!

Our inns

Brains inns come in all shapes and sizes, with their own individual character and appeal. At the heart of all them you will find a warm Brains welcome and a team who are there to make your stay comfortable and enjoyable.

Found across the cities, smaller market towns and, of course, at the beautiful Welsh coast and countryside, whether you are looking for a relaxing seaside getaway, a hike in the hills followed by a pint or a hearty pub meal and a comfy bed for the night there's a Brains inn for you.

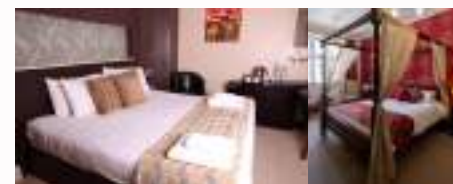

All of our inns offer tea and coffee facilities, free wi-fi, complimentary toiletries, televisions in the rooms and our friendly, welcoming and professional team will ensure your stay is perfect.

CLASSIC INNS

At our Classic Inns you'll find a friendly pub full of character, with comfortable accommodation and a great traditional pub menu.

For the holiday maker we have Classic Inns on the beautiful west coast seaside locations as well as many market towns that have the great outdoors on the doorstep. The business traveller will find our Classic Inns in a number of convenient locations, so they can enjoy a more personal alternative to chain hotels.

Our Classic inns are the ideal place to meet, eat, sleep and relax.

SIGNATURE INNS

Our Signature inns offer you that little something extra, from breath-taking views to stylishly furnished bedrooms and delightful dining experiences. Many are located on the sea-front with waterside dining areas, enabling you to enjoy a fine Brains cask ale while enjoying the scenery.

All of our Signature inns offer our premium quality dining menu, providing a mixture of classic pub favourites to dishes that offer that little something extra.

Our Signature inns are the perfect treat to enjoy for that special occasion.

Rooms in any of our Classic or Signature inns can be booked online or by phone.

Our Wales

Wales is a small, friendly, fascinating country, with a rich history, diverse geography, exciting attractions and mouth-watering produce.

You are never far from a mountain or the sea, which explains why we are so popular with walkers, climbers, surfers and sailors.

Snowdon is taller than any peak in the whole of England, and our clean unspoilt beaches and coastline attract a fantastic array of marine life, including; dolphins, porpoises, basking sharks, seals and turtles.

By contrast, Cardiff, the capital city of Wales and home to the S.A. Brain and Co brewery, is a thriving city, packed full of attractions and steeped in heritage and history. The Principality Stadium hosts global sporting events, while shopping centres such as St David's 2, featuring a range of designer and high street brands, draw shoppers from far and wide.

Cardiff bay boasts iconic buildings such as the Wales Millennium Centre and the Senedd – home of the Welsh Assembly Government. A proud sporting nation, Wales hosts international rugby, football and cricket and our superb golf courses have gained a new profile, with the Celtic Manor Resort in Newport staging the 2010 Ryder Cup.

As a nation, we are excited about the future, but we believe in looking after our history, as you will see from our majestic castles, much-loved steam railways, preserved coal mines and popular museums.

Wales had its own language – one of the oldest in Europe – which is celebrated at the annual Eisteddfod, while our love of literature is showcased at the world's most famous literary festival at Hay-on-Wye.

We love food and drink too. Beef, lamb, dairy products, seafood and wine are among our famous Welsh produce. You'll find these and even more delights on the menus in our inns.

www sabrain.com/bullhotel

- Historic 18th century inn at the heart of the town
- 22 rooms, full of character and period features
- Excellent facilities, including a residents lounge and function room

Situated in the heart of Anglesey and less than half an hour's drive from Snowdonia National Park, you'll get a true taste of North Wales with us. Whether you decide to stay in one of our courtyard bedrooms, or in the main hotel, all rooms provide unrivalled comfort and individuality.

Offering 22 rooms in total, including family, twin, double or single rooms, our rooms have their own unique names picked by local school children, including the "Santes Dwywnen" room (the Welsh St Valentine) and the "Lloyd George" room, boasting a four poster bed and roll top bath.

We also have a fully accessible ground floor room equipped with a walk-in shower; plus another room complete with its own kitchen facilities for those who prefer a self-catering option.

There are many local attractions in the beautiful Anglesey. Our recommendations would be; The Anglesey Sea Zoo, Anglesey Model Village & Gardens, Anglesey Race Circuit, Newborough forest, Beaumaris Castle and Pili Palas Nature World. For those of you who enjoy golf, Anglesey is blessed with a number of golf courses, with picturesque views and spectacular courses to suit all abilities. We're also only 20 minutes' drive from beautiful beaches, perfect for an afternoon walk.

- 4 en-suite bedrooms with breath-taking views across the bay
- Idyllic beachfront location
- Fabulous menu and famous fish specials

The Ship Inn is tucked away in an idyllic location just a stone's throw away from one of Ceredigion's finest beaches, Tresaith Bay, with golden sands and a cliff-side waterfall.

All four double en-suite rooms offer spectacular sea views. They all have tea and coffee making facilities, free wi-fi, and a TV. Two of the rooms have balconies.

Famous for its fantastic menu and seafood specials, The Ship also has a beachfront beer garden and terrace, as well as a car park. Perfect for a weekend break, there is a wide range of attractions close by, including the seal colony at Cardigan Island Farm, dolphin trips from the market town of Cardigan and activities such as surfing, kayaking and yachting.

The traditional bar, restaurant and seafront terrace offer stunning views of the coastline, while in the winter you can relax in front of a log fire in the cosy bar area.

Our 4 en-suite, seaview rooms are ideal to relax after a hard day's sunbathing on Tresaith's Blue Flag beach. Whether you take in the breath-taking sunsets across the bay or dolphin watch from your balcony, there's no better way to unwind than to the sound of clear waters lapping at the shore. The next morning, get your walking shoes on ready to explore the famous Ceredigion coastal walks, but not before your full Welsh breakfast is cooked to order for you to enjoy in our conservatory.

Once you've seen Tresaith, you'll never want to leave.
